LIBRARY ENVIRONMENT:

Customers are expected to maintain an acceptable standard of personal hygiene. Creating a hazardous or physically offensive condition - including unpleasant body odors that may offend other library customers as well as infested clothing or personal effects - is unacceptable. Shirts and shoes must be worn at all times.

To provide an orderly and pleasant public environment, any staff of this building, including security staff, is authorized to determine whether a library customer is not abiding by these or other Allegheny County Law Library rules and regulations. The library reserves the right to respond to any and all conduct not expressly set forth herein but which is deemed by library staff to unreasonably interfere with the use of the library by other customers or interfere with the performance of their duties by library employees.

Any customer who violates these rules and regulations may temporarily or permanently be denied the privilege of access to our facilities. A customer whose privileges have been denied may have the decision reviewed by the Director of the Law Library or Director's designee. Appropriate law enforcement authorities will be notified promptly of any unlawful activity. Violation or repetitive violation of any of these rules shall result in suspension of that person's library privileges for such period of time as deemed appropriate by the law library. Any person who refuses to leave or re-enters the library during patron suspension shall be considered a trespasser; law enforcement may be notified and the patron may be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

A copy of these Rules of Conduct shall be posted at the Law Library's entrance.

These Rules of Conduct have been approved and are in effect as of October 2013 and by the signatures of Allegheny County Solicitor and the Director of said library in addition to the Director of the Duquesne Center of Legal Information.
