ANONYMITY, SIX-DIGIT STUDENT EXAMINATION NUMBER

CAREFULLY READ ALL INSTRUCTIONS. IGNORANCE OF ANY RULE OR PROCEDURE WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AS AN EXCUSE FOR VIOLATION.

To maintain anonymity, all laptop users and bluebook writers must use the assigned six-digit number for all exams and scantrons. Exam numbers will be emailed to each student.

PAPERS/TAKE-HOME EXAMS/PROJECTS

- Exam numbers must be placed on all papers in lieu of a scheduled exam.
- Keep your exam number with you at all times. You will not receive additional numbers.
- If you wish to review any exams in the future, you MUST keep ALL of your exam numbers while attending Law School.

GENERAL REMINDERS

- Exams will NOT be rescheduled due to conflicts with weddings, family reunions, vacations or any other personal commitment.
- Students are NOT to contact individual professors regarding requests for makeup exams, rescheduling of exams, or any other matter regarding exams until grades are posted.
- During exams, students who become seriously ill (doctor excuse), death in the family, and/or serious family illness, must call 412-396-6295/6300 to speak with the Law School Registrar or see the Law School Registrar as soon as possible NOT the professor.
